CARIBBEAN JOURNAL OF EDUCATION

Volume 16, 1989

AUTHOR INDEX

Barnett, Sheila. The Arts in Environmental Education: A Note for Teachers, p. 117. Nos. 1&2.

Blum, Abraham. Education toward Sustainable Development and Agriculture: An Israeli Case Study, p. 81. Nos. 1&2.

Brown, Jessica. Sharing Environmental Education Resources: Atlantic Center for the Environment and Foundation for PRIDE, p. 91. Nos. 1&2.

Byron, Maria. Improving Numeracy in Trinidad and Tobago: Report on a Primary-Level Teacher Education Strategy, p. 211. No. 3.

Eyre, L. Alan. The Caribbean Environment: Trends toward Degradation and Strategies for Their Reversal, p. 13. Nos. 1&2.

Francis, George. Tertiary Environmental Education in Its Second Decade, p. 67. Nos. 1&2.

Glasgow, Joyce. Environmental Education: Global Concern, Caribbean Focus, p. 1. Nos. 1&2.

Howell, Calvin A., and Miller, Beverly A. Environmental Education in the English-speaking Caribbean: A Report, p. 105. Nos. 1&2.

King, Ruby. Elementary Education in Early Twentieth-Century Jamaica, p. 224. No. 3.

King, Winston K. Science Education in the Eastern Caribbean: Report on Primary-Level Development, p. 172. No. 3.

Miller, Beverly A., and Howell, Calvin A. Environmental Education in the English-speaking Caribbean: A Report, p. 105. Nos. 1&2.

Miller, Errol. Caribbean Primary Education: An Assessment, p. 136. No. 3.

Myers, Samuel S. Reading Performance of Jamaican Grade 6 Students, p. 189. No. 3.

Reid, L. H. E. Reginald N. Murray and Primary Education, p. 133. No. 3.

Watlington, Roy A. Interdependence through Geophysical Fluids: Saharan Haze and Other Oceanic and Atmospheric Phenomena, p. 46. Nos. 1&2.

Special Note on Volume 16

Nos. 1&2, Environmental Education: Global Concern, Caribbean Focus, was a special double issue edited by Joyce Glasgow.

No. 3, Primary Education in the Commonwealth Caribbean, was a special issue dedicated to Reginald N. Murray, and edited by Donald G. Wilson.

CARIBBEAN JOURNAL OF EDUCATION

Volume 16, 1989

TITLE INDEX

The Arts in Environmental Education: A Note for Teachers, by Sheila Barnett, p. 117. Nos. 1&2.

The Caribbean Environment: Trends toward Degradation and Strategies for Their Reversal, by L. Alan Eyre, p. 13. Nos. 1&2.

Caribbean Primary Education: An Assessment, by Errol Miller, p. 136. No. 3.

Education toward Sustainable Development and Agriculture: An Israeli Case Study, by Abraham Blum, p. 81. Nos. 1&2.

Elementary Education in Early Twentieth-Century Jamaica, by Ruby King, p. 224. No. 3.

Environmental Education: Global Concern, Caribbean Focus, by Joyce Glasgow, p. 1. Nos. 1&2.

Environmental Education in the English-speaking Caribbean: A Report, by Beverly A. Miller and Calvin A. Howell, p. 105. Nos. 1&2.

Improving Numeracy in Trinidad and Tobago: Report on a Primary-Level Teacher Education Strategy, by Maria Byron, p. 211. No. 3.

Interdependence through Geophysical Fluids: Saharan Haze and Other Oceanic and Atmospheric Phenomena, by Roy A. Watlington, p. 46. Nos. 1&2.

Reading Performance of Jamaican Grade 6 Students, by Samuel S. Myers, p. 189. No. 3.

Reginald N. Murray and Primary Education, by L. H. E. Reid, p. 133. No. 3.

Science Education in the Eastern Caribbean: Report on Primary-Level Development, by Winston K. King, p. 172. No. 3.

Sharing Environmental Education Resources: Atlantic Center for the Environment and Foundation for PRIDE, by Jessica Brown, p. 91. Nos. 1&2.

Tertiary Environmental Education in Its Second Decade, by George Francis, p. 67. Nos. 1&2.

Special Note on Volume 16

Nos. 1&2, Environmental Education: Global Concern, Caribbean Focus, was a special double issue edited by Joyce Glasgow.

No. 3, Primary Education in the Commonwealth Caribbean, was a special issue dedicated to Reginald N. Murray, and edited by Donald G. Wilson.